Alcohol Ink Scarves/wearable art
with NEW INSTRUCTOR Lori Greenberg

Tuesday, July 23rd, 1:30 to 4

$35 A3L members, $45 nonmembers, plus $13 supply fee

Ability level - beginners and beyond

Minimum 3 Maximum 8

Participants will have the opportunity to wrap themselves in one soft silk bandana and one 6' scarf designed with alcohol inks. Each person may choose to make a tie-dye like design or use a paint brush to create a picture. (Gloves and masks will need to be worn for this project).

Lori Greenberg is the founder of Aurora Studio & Gallery, an arts nonprofit for creatives who have lived experience with mental health needs or substance use. She has worked with various fiber creations since her youth and currently has her scarves for sale at various galleries around Western North Carolina.
