Holidays Around the World

EXHIBIT DATES: November 15th, 2018 Curator: John Sullivan

THEME: This show celebrates holidays. US holidays, universal holidays, national holidays of other countries around the world, religious and secular holidays. Since it occurs over the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons, certain emphasis could be placed on those holidays, but there is no limit. Have you made a Christmas tree or Menorah out of clay or wood? That fits. How about a Day of the Dead mask? Did you create a Thanksgiving quilt or table runner. How about original Christmas tree ornaments? Bring them in. What about a patriotic painting to celebrate the 4th of July or a bunny hiding Easter eggs? Bring in your original 2D art and photography or your 3D work that depicts one or more holidays. Our goal is to have lots of items that could be purchased as gifts, so please keep that in mind when you choose what to submit.

ENTRY TAKE-IN: THURSDAY November 15th FROM 2 TO 5sorry no exceptions unless you make arrangements in advance. (If you can't come, send it with someone else and be sure and send the completed prospectus! Found online at www.arrowheadart.org.)
